Bank of the Rockies Names Laura Myers In-House General Council

Helena, MT: Bank of the Rockies is pleased to announce Laura Myers has joined their staff as in-house General Counsel. Laura is a 2012 graduate of the University of Idaho School of Law and previously worked for Guthals, Hunnes and Reuss out of Billings.

"Laura has significant legal expertise in banking and has worked with us on many matters over the years," said President Michael E. Grove. "We are excited to now have her on board as our in-house Counsel." Laura is a Billings, Montana native and continues to reside in the Magic City with her husband Jesse and daughter Grace.

We invite the community to stop in and join us in welcoming Laura to the bank.

Bank of the Rockies has grown significantly over the years and provides quality banking services, excellent community reinvestment and employment opportunities throughout Meagher, Park, Fergus, and Lewis and Clark counties. Bank of the Rockies employs approximately sixty full- and part-time employees and continues to look for additional expansion opportunities. To learn more, visit www.bankoftherockies.com.
