Bank of the Rockies Welcomes Michael A. Grove As New Board Member

Helena, MT: The Directors and Staff of Bank of the Rockies are excited to welcome Michael A. Grove as our newest member of the Board of Directors. Michael was sworn in as a Director at the October 31, 2019 Board of Directors Meeting. Michael is the son of Bank of the Rockies President/CEO Michael E. Grove and is a 2018 graduate of Carrol College, with a degree in Political Science and Economics.

He has worked at Bank of the Rockies for 8 years and is currently an Executive Management Trainee. Michael is involved with the Montana Bankers Association, working on an Emerging Leaders Program for the State. He is also heavily involved in researching new and innovative financial technologies, products and services for Bank of the Rockies. Michael joins fellow directors Sky Anderson, David Brewer, Dan Grove, Keith Kelly and Rick Berg. "As we are in the midst of a new generation of banking, Michael will be a great asset in helping us to evolve and keep pace with the evolving needs of our customers," said Director Sky Anderson.

We invite the community to stop in and join us in welcoming Michael to our Board.
